

Indiana Passport Contest: It's As Easy As Tic-Tac-Toe

We promised to bring you beauty from every corner of Indiana through the pages of At Home Indiana. Now, we've upped the game ... so you can win amazing prizes!

"YOU HAVE TO BE KIDDING!" That was the first reaction editors received when we pitched the idea of giving thousands of dollars of prizes to readers of At Home Indiana in this Premiere Issue and in others to follow.

The second reaction—"Have you lost your minds?"

First, we assured our publishers we were of sound mind and completely serious. Then, we laid out our simple rationale:

1. We wanted readers to have a chance to see the beauty of Indiana.
2. Indiana's motto is "The Crossroads of America." What better way to celebrate that than by giving Hoosiers destinations they can easily drive to.
3. We want to help Indiana businesses. They'll be there to greet you and personally validate readers' passports.

4. Finally, we wanted to bring some extra excitement into our readers' lives. This contest will do just that!

Were we convincing? You bet. The next thing we heard was, "That sounds like fun!"

Ready to Play?

In each issue, you'll find a tic-tac-toe game board like the one at right. We call this our Indiana Passport. Why? Because this passport leads readers to a designated region of the state. Once there, explore the hidden treasures of that region while having your passport validated at stops.

As on any typical tic-tac-toe game board, there are nine different squares—each belonging to one of our passport stops. This creates the perfect opportunity for Hoosier businesses to get the word out about why they love to call Indiana home.

Here's How the Contest Works

We'll keep the travel manageable, limiting it to one region in every issue. This issue features our Southern region. Keep these details in mind:

- Along the way, stop at places on the Indiana Passport game board to collect your passport sticker.
- Three in a row—any direction—makes your passport eligible for our exciting prize drawings.
- Once you get three stickers in a row send your completed passport to us and we will enter your name into this issue's random drawing to win a fantastic prize.
- To enter, email a color scan or photo of your validated passport to: Editor@AtHomeIndianaMagazine.com with "Indiana Passport, Premiere Issue" in the subject line. Or mail your validated passport or color copy to: "Indiana Passport, Premiere Issue," At Home Indiana, 306 East Parr Road, Berne, IN 46711. Be sure to include your name, mailing address, daytime phone number and email address.
- Winners will be drawn before our next issue is published. One entry per reader, per issue.
- No employees of this magazine are eligible to win.

This issue's prizes are worth more than $2,250! Here's what you could win:
